

Doctrinal Studies:
ANTINOMIANISM

- I. The belief that Christians are liberated from the observance of moral laws when God's grace is active.
- II. People are only accountable in matters of the spirit.
- III. Anti – “against”; nomos – “law”. The doctrine that faith in Christ frees the Christian from obligation to observe the moral law as set forth in the Old Testament.