

Holiness

Holy: Exalted or worthy of complete devotion, as one perfect in goodness and righteousness.

Holiness: Hebrew – qôdesh [קֹדֶשׁ pronounced KOH-desh]: Sacred, dedicated, consecrated, set apart, separate.

Greek – hagios [ἅγιος, pronounced HAHG-ee-awss] – from the Greek root hagos [ἅγος, pronounced HAHG-awss] – an awful thing.

Righteousness

Righteous: Acting in accord with divine or moral law: free from guilt or sin.

Hebrew – tsaddîyq [צדיק, pronounced tsad-DEEK] – just, lawful, righteous. Implies an absolute moral standard of “rightness”; used to refer to God’s absolute, perfect, standard.

Greek – dikaïos [δίκαιος, pronounced DIH-kai-awss]. From dike [δίκη, pronounced DIH-kay] – self-evidently right; references the absolute, Divine, standard of righteousness.

Justice

Justice: The impartial assignment of merited rewards or punishments; the quality of being just, impartial, or fair; the ideal of just dealing or right action; conformity to the principle or ideal of righteousness; the quality of conforming to law; conformity to truth.

Hebrew – tsâdaq [צדק, pronounced tsaw-DAK] – the root word of tsaddîyq.

Greek – dike [δίκη, pronounced DIH-kay] – the root word of dikaïos.

Three Results of Adam's Fall

- Adam died spiritually and physically—Gen. 2:17; Rom. 6:23.
- Adam's original sin is imputed to each member of mankind—Rom 5:12, 15.
- Adam acquired a sin nature, and all mankind has inherited it from him—Rom. 5:12; 7:18-25; Psa. 51:5.

Imputation

Definition:

1. To attribute or ascribe some criminal offense to a person.
2. To attribute some observed effect to a particular cause.
3. To assign a notional value to goods or services when the real value is unknown.

Two Imputations

1. SINS OF THE

At the Cross

2. RIGHTEOUSNESS
OF CHRIST

At Salvation

GOD'S

Manifesting the Holiness of God

- James 1:25 – “But one who looks intently at the perfect law, the law of liberty, and abides by it, not having become a forgetful hearer but an effectual doer, this man will be blessed in what he does.”
- Principle of the Law: The Mosaic Law & the Prophets – the Old Testament
- Fulfillment of the Law: The life of Jesus Christ – the Gospels
- Illumination of the Law: The Laws of Grace, Love, and Liberty – the New Testament.
