

REVELATION – PURPOSE

- I. Believers suffering bitter persecution.
- II. Government forces turned against the province of Asia.
- III. Imperial authority against Christianity revealed in this book.
- IV. God used this author to encourage suffering believers and for them to know that they would triumph over all evil and all opposition.
- V. The struggle between good and evil is prominent in this book.
- VI. There is no doubt as to the final issue, who will be victorious.
- VII. The doers of evil shall suffer punishment in the final judgment, while believers (including martyrs) shall share future glory.
