

Confident Anticipation

1. At salvation we do not see the blessings of maturity.
2. The blessing of imputed righteousness gives us hope of having these blessings.
3. At maturity, we do not see the blessings of eternity, but imputed blessings give us a confident anticipation (hope). One imputation gives hope for the next imputation.
4. Imputed righteousness is the hope for blessings in time.
5. The resurrection body is the hope for blessings throughout eternity.
